

Jeff Young Bio

Jeff was named Director of County Operations of the University of Kentucky, Cooperative Extension Service on February 1, 2016. He is originally from White Mills, Kentucky, a small farming community in Hardin County.

Jeff is a graduate of the University of Kentucky, College of Agriculture and the University of Louisville, where he received his Ph.D. He began his career as a 4-H Youth Development Agent in Jefferson and Bullitt Counties, before accepting the role as District 3 Director in 2010.

Jeff is married to Sheila and have three sons – Alex, Evan and Luke.