

Core Program Area: COMMUNICATIONS and EXPRESSIVE ARTS

This evaluation tool aligns with the following Plan of Work Concentrations:

- Work and Life Skill Development (501)
- Connected and Resilient Communities (401)

4-H Program Impact Evaluation for Youth Participants who have engaged in six hours (or more) of education.
Communications:
After participating in 4-H...		Yes	No
501.6	I expressed my thoughts or opinions.
501.7	I used information to communicate with others.
501.8	I demonstrated a skill I have learned.
Leadership:
After participating in 4-H...		Yes	No
501.9	I served in a leadership role.
501.10	I worked in a team / group to accomplish a common task or goal.
501.11	I realized how my actions impact others.
Civic Engagement:
After participating in 4-H...		Yes	No
501.12	I identified the needs of others in my community.
501.13	I participated in a service activity (community service, service learning, personal service to others).
501.14	I recognized leaders in my community or area of interest.
Core Program Area: Communication and Expressive Arts
After participating in 4-H...		Yes	No
Short Term (Administer Immediately Following Program/Activity)
401.8	I understand that expressive arts include art, dance, music and drama.
401.9	Through 4-H I have identified my interest in expressive arts.
	I understand that effective communication includes speaking, listening, writing, and non-verbal skills.
501.2	I improved my job interview skills.
501.3	I improved my personal skills (e.g. communication, networking, and time management).
Medium Term (Administer at the end of the program year)
	I practice or apply communication skills that are beneficial when interacting with others.
	I can identify one or more jobs that would be a good fit for me in communication or expressive arts and are making plans to pursue them.
401.10	I practiced or applied creative, artistic, or performance skills I learned in 4-H in other areas of my life.

401.11	I have used knowledge or skills gained in 4-H to complete a project or activity in expressive arts.
401.12	My confidence in interacting with others has increased as a result of my participation in Extension arts activities.
501.15	I have developed a resume.

